PSAT/SAT/ACT

A PRACTICAL GUIDE TO TEST TAKING

| JUNIOR YEAR   |   |   |  | SENIOR YEAR   |
|---|---|---|--|---|
| PSAT  | SAT   | SAT SUBJECT TESTS   | ACT  | RETAKE SAT OR ACT IF NEED BE; RETAKE OR TAKE NEW SUBJECT TESTS  |
| WHEN: October 15 or 18. Ask your school about registration deadlines. HOW: The school sends home notices to sign up, usually in September. COST: $13 (includes results online). Check to see if your school will pay or whether you qualify for a fee waiver. (Some schools also charge an administrative fee.) WHY: Maybe you took it in 10th grade; maybe not. Either way, your 11th-grade scores will reveal the current state of your test-taking strengths and weaknesses. Another reason: It's the qualifying test for the National Merit Scholarship (if your scores are high enough, you'll be entered into the competition) and a first step for programs to help Hispanics and African-Americans. Also, if you love getting mail, check the box to announce yourself to colleges across the land. DID YOU KNOW: These scores will not go to any college admissions office. PREP: If you took the PSAT in the 10th grade and your sophomore scores suggest you're in the running for a National Merit Scholarship (ballpark: 90th percentile and up)—or you just need to improve them—you might consider a prep book, course, or tutor. If you haven't taken the test before, you should at least try the practice test in the registration packet you get from your high school counselor. NEXT STEP: Results come in December. Look at your scores and look at the schools you're thinking of applying to. Then it's time to consider: more prep on your own, prep class, or individual tutor (warning: The best tutors book up—gulp—a year ahead). | WHEN: Juniors typically take the test in the spring. The '09 dates: January 24, March 14, May 2, or June 6 (register by December 26, February 10, March 31, and May 5, respectively). For students unable to take a Saturday test for religious reasons, a Sunday test is given the day after. HOW: Register online at collegeboard.com or by mail with the "SAT Registration Booklet" from your guidance counselor. Online registration opens in June for the coming school year. Early birds have a better chance of nailing the testing locale of their choice; dawdlers must pay a $23 late fee. You can also show up on test day and try for standby. Be there before 7:45 a.m. Bring a registration form and its envelope, plus credit card info or checks to cover the regular fees and $38 in standby fees. COST: $45. WHY: Need you ask? DID YOU KNOW: It's perfectly normal to take the test more than once. Starting in March, you can benefit from a new policy that lets you pick which of your scores you want colleges to see. Make sure you select that option if that's what you want to do. PREP: If your PSAT score showed weaknesses, try to correct them with a prep book, class, or private tutor. The College Board has resources online (as does the ACT). Just as important: Sleep well the week of the test. NEXT STEP: Now that you can pick which score to submit, you have nothing to lose (except $45 a shot) by taking the test over. Order the supplemental score reports to see where you need to improve and whether you need fine-tuning or a major overhaul. | WHEN: October 4, November 1, December 6, January 24, May 2, and June 6 (register by September 9, September 26, November 5, December 26, March 31, and May 5, respectively). HOW: Register online or by mail with the SAT Registration Booklet. COST: $20 registration fee, plus an additional $9 for each subject test and $20 for each language test. WHY: Because very selective schools (including Harvard, Georgetown, and Princeton) may want three. DID YOU KNOW: As with the SAT itself, you'll soon be able to pick between scores if you take a test more than once. Feeling confident? Take it as soon as you're ready. Otherwise, look to use the score choice option beginning this spring to maximize your options. Also, check the collegeboard.com calendar ASAP—not all tests are offered on every date. PREP: Several weeks beforehand, try a diagnostic test in the College Board's book Real SAT Subject Tests, sold via Amazon and other vendors. If you've got big gaps, try a prep book for the subject matter. You may even be able to find a prep class (but it'd have to be a popular subject like math. There will most likely be nihil for Latin lovers). A tutor can help you organize yourself, but reteaching a whole year's worth of knowledge is hard in many subjects. NEXT STEP: Reflect on what went well and what didn't. Problems? Were they a timing issue or a knowledge issue? Also, consider taking three tests in May—then focus by redoubling your efforts on two of them for the June test. Or try again in your senior year. | WHEN: September 13 (some states only, listed on flip side), October 25, December 13, February 7, April 4, and June 13 (register by August 12, September 19, November 7, January 6, February 27, and May 8, respectively). HOW: Register online or by mail (details are at www.actstudent.org). COST: $31 without writing, $46 with. WHY: It's a fact: ACT is great for some kids. Most students describe the test as straightforward. There's no penalty for wrong answers, and you finish rather than start your test day with an essay. Taking the ACT early on lets you compare your results with your PSAT score (you can find a table to convert an ACT score into SAT-speak at collegeboard.com). Do that, then decide which test to focus on. DID YOU KNOW: You can opt to keep any of your scores private, so you can start taking the test as early as you like. PREP: Your guidance counselor should have a sample test. You can also use a good prep book or see whether there's a local class or tutor. NEXT STEP: Scores are available early online. If ACT is the test for you and you'd like to boost your score, look at the straightforward and helpful Real ACT Prep Guide ($25, including shipping, at act.org, or check with your school's guidance center). But if you're happy with the scores, send 'em to the schools you're applying to—fill out an online request or send a letter of request. Reports to the first four schools are free if you make your request when you register; each additional report costs $9 (regular processing) or $13 (priority—plus $12 extra if request is made by phone). | WHEN: Take the SAT or subject tests on October 4, November 1, or December 6 (register by September 9, September 26, and November 5, respectively) or take the ACT on September 13, October 25, or December 13 (register by August 12, September 19, and November 7, respectively). HOW: Register online, by phone, or by mail. COST: $45 for the SAT, $40 for SAT language with listening subject tests, $29 for all other SAT subject tests, $31 for the ACT without writing, $46 for the ACT with writing. WHY: Last chance to push up those scores. The highest scores are the ones that count, but that doesn't mean schools will ignore weaker scores entirely. (After March, the new option to select between scores will give next year's seniors a break.) DID YOU KNOW: If you're applying early, you need to take the October tests. November is often too late for scores to reach your early-decision school in time. But for those students who are applying regular decision, the November test should be fine, and even December. As a last-minute measure, you might go for January, but only if the school has an early '09 application deadline and you check with the admissions office first. PREP: Study, sleep, study, study, sleep, study, sleep. NEXT STEP: Recycle those No. 2 pencils into chopsticks or hair ornaments, for you will never ever have to take a standardized college admissions test again (oh, wait, unless you decide to go to grad school . . .). |
